

THE HINDU

Sunday, August 28, 2011

CPL from Sept. 18

BANGALORE: Jain University's Centre for Management Studies (CMS) will play host to the inaugural edition of the All India College Premier League (CPL) Twenty20 cricket tournament in Bangalore from September 18 to 25.

The CPL, which was launched on Saturday, will have 24 teams from all over the country, with 10 of them from Bangalore.

While the first round will be played with whites and red ball, the later rounds will be played with white balls and coloured clothing. The semifinals and final are to be played under lights.