

Monday, January 2, 2012

Meet on Jainism today

BANGALORE, DHNS: An international conference on the influence of Jainism in the areas of art, culture and literature is being organised on January 2 at the Jain University Centre for Management Studies.

The conference intends to map the influence and growth of Jainism in Hindi, English, Sanskrit and Kannada languages.

The meet also aims to provide an insight into Jain literature as it has transcended through the centuries. Renowned national and international scholars will present their research papers and findings on various aspects of Jainism.

Jainism scholar Hampa Nagarajaiah, Jnanapith awardee Chandrashekara Kambar and Rajasthan Patrika Managing Director Gulab Kothari will be the chief guests.