

Inauguration of All India College Premier League (CPL) T20
organized by Jain University

Jain University (Declared as Deemed-to-be-University u/s 3 of the UGC Act, 1956; Earlier known as Jain College) has been a frontrunner in the practice of sporting and academic excellence. We have produced some of India's finest sports achievers and are also ranked among India's top universities offering Sports Training, Infrastructure and Facilities of International Standards.

From September 18th to 25th, Jain University is presenting a very special event focusing on sporting excellence - the "College Premier League (CPL)", an All India Inter-collegiate cricket tournament, promising challenge and excitement to sport lovers.

CPL will be a 20 – 20 tournament featuring 24 competing cricket teams from top colleges of the country battling it out to a grand finale culminating in two of the best contenders vying for the cup. The Semifinals and the Finals will a day – night match.

The event has generated a lot of interest and enthusiasm among the students, sports aficionados, sports organisers and the corporate.