

DECCAN HERALD

SJCC clinch CPL CROWN

» Riding on a 44-run knock from Kunal S St Joseph's College of Commerce beat Jain University by four wickets and emerged champions of the College Premier League.

Batting first, Jain University posted a modest total of 129 for five in 20 overs. In reply, spurred on by Kunal's knock, SJCC reached the target in 18.3 overs.

In the third place play-off, Centre of Management Studies edged Christ University by seven runs.

Brief scores: Jain University: 129/5 in 20 overs (Rohith Gowda 46; Umanak 2-8) It to St Joseph's College of Commerce: 130/6 in 18.3 overs (Kunal S 44; Suraj 3-14).

Third-fourth play-off: Center for Management Studies: 50/4 in 8 overs (Mridul 26; Arvind 2-9) bt Christ University: 43/5 in 8 overs (Dikshit Surana 2-10).